33,000 BROADACRE FARMS.
ONE SPECIALIST BROKER.

A

agriRisk is the only broker in Australia that specialises in insurance for agribusiness, including coverage of risks particular to broadacre farms. Just like any other rural product or service, AgriRisk believes that insurance is best delivered by people who work in agriculture every day. Established in 1989, the organisation has 20 specialist staff located in Sydney, Tamworth and Auckland, providing insurance to primary producers, rural supply chain businesses and rural investors.

AgriRisk provides tailored insurance solutions to financially safeguard the grower from damage to crops caused by hail and fire — both of which can destroy entire crops or severely affect yields.

THOUSANDS OF GROWERS. THOUSANDS OF POLICIES.

At AgriRisk it is rare for two broadacre insurance policies to be the same and that's because no two farms are the same. AgriRisk will spend time getting to know your business and understanding how you expect your broadacre insurance to perform. That way, you can be sure of no surprises when it comes to making a claim. Financial, seasonal and market considerations and the levels of risk you are prepared to accept will be taken into account and a policy appropriate to your business will then be tailor-made to suit your individual needs.

WHAT DOES BROADACRE INSURANCE COVER?

AgriRisk has access to two types of broadacre insurance policies that cover against loss of yield and income caused by hail and fire, straying livestock, chemical drift and grain lost during transit. Grain stored in silos and grain storage bags can also be covered, as can replanting costs and fire mitigation expenses.

In addition to AgriRisk's crop specialty, all your general insurance requirements can also be customised into a comprehensive rural program.
